

What you should know about the Vancouver Community Library Building Project

Address for new location: 901 C Street, Vancouver WA 98660

Funding <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Library Capital Facility Area bonds approved by Vancouver voters in September 2006</li> <li>$5 million anonymous gift</li> <li>Land donation from Killian Pacific</li> </ul>	Architects Miller   Hull Partnership of Seattle General Contractor Howard S. Wright Constructors (office in Vancouver)	Size of collection to be moved Nearly TWO MILES of books and other materials, as measured by linear shelf space Anticipated opening Summer 2011
--	--	---

New and bigger is better!	Old	New
Square feet	36,000	83,000
Catalog and resource computers	24	43
Internet computers	16	69
Seating: lounge and study tables	118	300
Seating: technology areas	46	86
Meeting rooms	1	3
Study rooms	0	2
Collection capacity	285,000	385,000

More features:

- Fifth-floor outdoor terrace
- Self check-out stations

- Early Learning Center
- Teen Room
- Reading Room

More information:

- www.fvrl.org
- 360-695-1566