Public Invited to ‘Meet and Greet’ Candidates for Washougal Branch Manager

VANCOUVER, Wash. -- Fort Vancouver Regional Library District will present four candidates for the position of Washougal library branch manager at a public Meet and Greet event on Tuesday, Nov. 10, 6:00-7:30 p.m. The event will be held at Washougal Community Center, adjacent to the library at 1701 C St.

The four candidates are:

- Janet Alder – marketing and outreach coordinator, Fort Vancouver Regional Library District
- Wally Clark – county librarian, Mendocino County (Calif.) Library
- Mark Peterson – Learning Resource Center director, Klamath Community College (Ore.)
- Rachael Ries – public services librarian, Vancouver Community Library (FVRL)

Attendees will have a chance to meet, talk with and hear brief presentations from each of the candidates for the branch manager position, and to enjoy refreshments provided by Friends of the Library. Comment forms will be available for individuals to provide feedback to the hiring committee. The district expects to have a new Washougal manager in place by December.

The Washougal position became open with the retirement of former Branch Manager Chris Hughey.

Any questions about the event can be directed to the library at (360) 906-4860.
