

First Friday Downtown Art Exhibits at the Vancouver Community Library

In support of the Fort Vancouver Regional Library District's mission to provide gateways to ideas, information and community interaction, the Vancouver Community Library participates in Vancouver's Downtown Association First Friday Downtown walks. Each exhibit is open during the first Friday of the selected month, 5:00 – 8:30 PM and continues during library open hours on the following Saturday and Sunday. The exhibits showcase Southwest Washington artists ranging from amateurs to professionals, providing the public access to a wide range of art displays.

General Information

Selection is conducted by a library staff committee based on the following criteria:

- Aesthetics, presentation, craftsmanship, medium, size and appropriateness for viewing by library users of all ages
- Interests of the community
- Suitability of format for the library's physical space
- Artists may only submit work for inclusion every two years

Art is installed in the Columbia Room, located on the first floor of the Vancouver Community Library and requires:

- Artwork which is two-dimensional must be wired and ready for hanging (no sawtooth hangers)
- Artists will be responsible for delivery and retrieval of their artwork
- Artwork will be installed exclusively by qualified library staff

Sales

- Sales must take place in a private transaction between the artist and the buyer
- Only art which is on display as part of the exhibition will be available for sale
- Any art involved in a sales agreement must remain in the library exhibition until the end of the show

Liability

The library does not assume liability for injury or damage to personal property which occurs during exhibition. A signed agreement form will be required prior to the opening exhibit.
