‘Revolutionary Reads’: Fort Vancouver Regional Libraries Launches New Reading and Event Series

Three books by author Cory Doctorow chosen for inaugural series with special author event planned in March

VANCOUVER, Wash. – Fort Vancouver Regional Libraries is excited to launch a new reading and event series to engage readers, spark dialogue, and inspire ideas that just might change the world.

FVRLibraries’ “Revolutionary Reads” launches this year focusing on three books (Little Brother, In Real Life, and Information Doesn’t Want to Be Free) by science fiction novelist, blogger and technology activist Cory Doctorow, as well as a series of events throughout the library district related to technology, information, and cyberculture. Programs start in February and run through March at FVRLibraries locations throughout Clark, Skamania and Klickitat Counties, concluding in a special author event on March 26. Of course, copies of Cory Doctorow’s books are available for checkout at FVRLibraries locations.

Author Event

Cory Doctorow will be speaking at 7 pm on March 26 at Clark Community College’s Gaiser Hall, 1933 Fort Vancouver Way Vancouver, WA 98663. A short Q&A and author signing will follow the talk. Copies of his books will be available for purchase at the event. The event will be
