The Pacific Northwest Library Association Young Reader's Choice Award is the oldest children's choice award in the U.S. and Canada. It was established in 1940 by a Seattle bookseller who believed every student should have an opportunity to select a book that gives her or him pleasure.

Nominations are taken only from the children, teachers, parents and librarians in the Pacific Northwest – Washington, Idaho, Montana, Alaska, British Columbia and Alberta – and only 4th to 12th graders are eligible to vote.
