

Contest is open February 1-28, 2022

Eligibility

Children in grades K-12 who live or attend school in Clark, Skamania or Klickitat county, Yale Valley Library District or the Woodland School District may enter. Homeschoolers should enter at the comparable grade level.

Bookmarks will be judged on...

1. DESIGN

- Use this entry form or an exact photocopy of the same size. Forms are available at any FVRLibraries location and fvrl.org.
- There is no theme this year, so your design is only limited by your imagination. Need some inspiration? Try creating an imaginary creature and its home.
- Text may be in any language; words must be spelled correctly.
- Keep important design details away from the line around the box or they may be cut off.

2. ORIGINALITY

- Artwork must be original—no tracing or use of copyrighted images such as cartoon characters.
- Must be created by eligible K-12 contestants—no adult contributions.

3. REPRODUCIBILITY for printing

- Do not use lead (graphite) pencils.
- No computer-generated art.
- Do not use fluorescent markers.
- If you use crayons and/or colored pencils, press down to get solid colors (light sketching will not show up).

How to enter

- Complete your design inside the box provided.
- Be sure to completely fill out the information below
— PRINT CLEARLY!
- One entry per person.
- Entries must be received by Monday, February 28 at an FVRLibraries location or bookmobile.

How the contest works

- Your local public library will choose a finalist for each of the five grade categories.
- Local finalists will each receive their bookmark framed.
- The winning entries from each library will be entered into the district-wide contest.
- The five district winners will receive an art supply kit courtesy of Medallion Art School.
- The winning bookmarks become property of the library district and will be displayed on the library's website and printed for library use.
- This event is not sponsored or endorsed by any school district.
