DETAILS FOR PARTICIPATING ARTISTS

Eligibility

Open to all interested artists. All media will be considered, including fiber arts. NO ENTRY FEE

Instructions

Artwork must be based on or inspired by the 2022 featured book, The Eagle Tree by Ned Hayes. Participating artists may pick up a free copy of the featured book, compliments of the Friends of the Library, at the library's front desk.

Artwork must be suitably prepared for display and ready to hang (i.e. framed and wired, etc). Works must weigh less than 45 pounds and may protrude no more than 12 inches from the wall.

Delivery

Artwork (accompanied by a completed and signed 'Artwork Display Agreement & Registration form') will be received up to and including Saturday, September 17, or contact Mary Kapp at 509-493-1679 or jmkapp@gorge.net to make special arrangements.

The show will close at 6 pm on Monday, October 31. Artwork may be picked up November 1–5 during library open hours or at another time by arrangement.

Conditions

Participating artists are on our mailing list, which may be subject to public records requests. Please notify us if you want to be removed from this list.

Works may be for sale at the request of the artist. If works are sold during the exhibition, the Friends of the Library would appreciate a donation, amount to be determined by the artist.

All accepted work is to remain on display for the duration of the exhibition.

Recognition

People's Choice selection will be recognized.

Reception

The opening reception hosted by the Friends of White Salmon Valley Community Library for the artists and public will be held on Thursday, September 29, 6–8 pm in the library's Sprint/Baker Gallery.
